The Court vests Ms. London, as Co-Lead Counsel and Plaintiffs’ Liaison Counsel, with the authority and duty to coordinate and oversee the PSC’s responsibilities; to schedule PSC meetings and keep minutes or transcripts of these meetings as appropriate; to appear at periodic Court-noticed status conferences and hearings and present to the Court and opposing parties the position of the plaintiffs on all matters arising during pretrial proceedings; to sign and file all pleadings that relate to all actions; and to bind the PSC in scheduling settlement discussions and discovery, setting agendas, entering into stipulations, and in other necessary interactions with any other relevant parties. Ms. London may designate counsel in her discretion to perform these duties as appropriate and necessary to progress the litigation effectively and efficiently.

Ms. London, as Plaintiffs’ Liaison Counsel, shall also do the following:

1. Establish and maintain a depository for orders, pleadings, hearing transcripts, and all documents served upon plaintiffs’ counsel, and make such papers available to plaintiffs’ counsel upon reasonable request.
2. Maintain, in conjunction with their accountant, records of receipts and disbursements advanced by PSC members and received by the PSC and report in writing to the PSC concerning disbursements and receipts.
3. Designate counsel to schedule depositions, set agendas, and otherwise interact with defense counsel, various plaintiffs’ counsel, and any other relevant parties.

1 Ms. London shall perform other necessary PSC administrative and logistic
2 functions and carry out any other duty as the Court may order.

3 All appointments made in this Order are personal to the individual attorney
4 appointed. While the Court has considered PSC members' resources and expects that they
5 will draw upon their firms and co-counsel to assist them with their duties, each member is 6 personally responsible for his or her duties.

7 It is intended and expected that—as to all matters common to the coordinated cases,
8 and to the fullest extent consistent with the independent fiduciary obligations owed by any 9 and all plaintiffs' counsel to their clients—pretrial proceedings shall be conducted by and 10 through the PSC.

11 The PSC is responsible for creating its own structure, including establishing 12 subcommittees. The Court recognizes that changes to the PSC's organization may be 13 necessary as the litigation progresses and new details emerge.

14 All timekeepers carrying out work for the plaintiffs' common benefit, including 15 PSC members, who may look to any common fund or agreement for reimbursement or 16 compensation shall maintain detailed and contemporaneous time records. The Court will 17 issue a subsequent order regarding the guidelines and rules for work done and expense
18 incurred for the common benefit of all plaintiffs in this MDL.

19 If circumstances warrant, the Court may add or replace members of the PSC upon
20 request from the PSC or on its own motion. Unless otherwise modified by the Court, all 21 appointments made in this order will last for one year from the date the order is entered.
22 Appointees may apply to be reappointed when their term expires by submitting an 23 application on or before November 29, 2024. Such applications shall detail the nature and 24 scope of the appointee's work on behalf of the PSC during the prior year.

25 III. CASE MANAGEMENT

26 Co-Lead Counsel and the PSC shall promptly meet and confer with Defendants as 27 to the following:

- 28 1. a discovery plan, including any desired revisions to Pretrial Order No. 2

- 1 regarding the preservation of evidence;
- 2 2. a protective order; and
- 3 3. a schedule for the filing of a long-form complaint and for briefing motions to
- 4 dismiss.

5 By December 14, 2023, Plaintiffs’ Liaison Counsel and Defendants shall jointly 6 submit the following to the Court:

- 7 1. A proposed pretrial order regarding discovery. If the parties cannot reach an 8 agreement, then each shall submit its own proposal with a memorandum (not 9 to exceed ten pages) explaining why the Court should adopt that party’s 10 proposal.
- 11 2. A stipulated order regarding anonymity for those plaintiffs who wish to 12 proceed anonymously.
- 13 3. A stipulated protective order. Again, if the parties are unable to agree on the 14 contents of such an order, then each shall submit its own version with a 15 memorandum (not to exceed five pages) explaining why the Court should 16 adopt that party’s proposal.
- 17 4. A proposed pretrial order establishing a process and schedule for filing a 18 long-form complaint and briefing any motions to dismiss.
- 19 5. Any other proposals the parties may wish the Court to consider.

20 Finally, the Court will hold a case management conference on January 12, 2024, to 21 discuss any outstanding issues related to the above matters and any other case management
22 issues that may require the Court’s attention. Plaintiffs’ Liaison Counsel and Defendants’
23 counsel shall jointly file a proposed conference agenda by January 8, 2024.

24 IV. UNFILED CASES

25 At the initial status conference and in their applications for leadership positions, 26 various plaintiffs’ counsel have stated that they represent large numbers of plaintiffs—in 27 some cases hundreds or even more than a thousand—who intend to file cases in this MDL.
28 It appears that only a small fraction of such cases have been filed to date. As the Court

1 previously noted, its interest is in resolving common pretrial issues in this MDL as
2 efficiently and quickly as possible. To that end, plaintiffs’ counsel are encouraged to file
3 their cases sooner rather than later, consistent with their fiduciary obligation to their 4 clients.

6 IT IS SO ORDERED.
